A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PAST CHANCELOR COMMANDERS

Pythian Brothers

Spring is just around the corner and the Boys of Summer are back in Spring Training. Hope springs eternal for both the Mets and the Yankees. So far this winter we have already doubled the total snow amount of 2.4" from last year. Let's go NYC!

Congratulations are in order for Grand Chancellor Richard Resnick, Grand Outer Guard Paul Barth and Deputy Grand Chancellor David Salem for a job well done. As of this writing we are looking forward to a number of events to honor our Genesis brothers. On Sunday March 3rd Paul Barth and David Salem will be honored at the Deputies' Dinner at the El Carib Country Club. On March 18th GC Richard Resnick will be presented with the Blue Jacket by the 46th Past Chancellors Association at our Castle Hall at AOH and on the 20th of March Majestic Lodge presents Richie with the Red Collar, also at AOH. Looking ahead, the Grand Chancellor's Homecoming and Gavel Night will be held on May 29th. Further information on all of these events, see inside this bulletin.

The entertainment committee hit it out of the park again with the Valentines Day party at Roma View. Delicious food and a terrific DJ made for a really fun evening.

The Super Bowl party was also a rousing success. Watching the game on the big screen with our Pythian family and all the wonderful food provided by Perry's Diner was definitely a winning combination for all who attended. More good news, Radio Bingo is back by popular demand! Friday March 29 at AOH. Get your reservations in ASAP as this popular event tends to fill up quickly.

Wishing all of our Pythian Family a Happy Passover and Joyous Easter

In Friendship, Charity and Benevolence,

Ken Schechter & Jay Streich
Past Chancellor Commanders

The Valentines dinner was a huge success despite fewer participants then in past years. As always the food was fantastic, well displayed and served.
